Forget the free trip; it will net you 16 cents per hour. You must be organized and methodically face chaos, cool and calm in the midst of emergencies and panic, authoritative and persuasive in the throes of anarchy and rebellion, pleasant and tactful in the presence of grumpiness and guile.

You will need to keep the accounting for the trip. Calculate the total amount of each participant's trip cost (package plus options minus discounts), keep track of payments, copy receipts and submit expenses promptly. Then, triple check everything before the fun starts.

Rewards of being a Trip Leader...

You receive instant gratification of being in a position of leadership and knowing people are looking up to you. You have the true joys of heroism, especially when you do something truly heroic like locating someone's lost luggage.. You will have the great satisfaction from making things happen. You will enjoy the satisfaction that comes from a JOB WELL DONE!
