Solden, Austria –

The Solden ski area ranks among the most renowned ski areas in the Alps. And with good reason thanks to its high Alpine altitude, two glaciers ski mountains and top modern snow-making systems. Solden is the largest ski resort in the Oetztal valley with an extensive network of slopes, an equally impressive lift system and a lively apres-ski scene in town. The town of Soldens main street is filled with buzzing bars, clubs, shops and restaurants. Five other ski resorts reside in the Oetztal Valley.

The Telegraph

Salzburg, Austria

Salzburg is the fourth largest city in Austria. The town is on the site of the Roman settlement of Iuvavum. Salzburg was founded in 696 and became a seat of the archbishop in 798. Its main sources of income were salt extraction, trade and gold-mining. The fortress of Hohensalzburg, one of the largest medieval fortresses in Europe, dates from the 11th century. Salzburg's historic center is renowned for its Baroque architecture and is one of the best-preserved city-centers north of the Alps. Salzburg is also the birthplace of the 18th century composer Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, who is considered one of the greatest composers of all time.
