Day 4 – Wednesday, November 2, 2022:

Bangkok

This three-hour tour is the perfect journey to visit some of Bangkok's most iconic temples. First, visit the glimmering Golden Buddha, the world's largest solid golden statue, housed at Wat Traimit. Next up, explore Wat pho, one of the largest and oldest temples in Bangkok, and home to more than 1000 Buddha images. The temple is also considered the first public University of Thailand, and known as the birthplace of traditional Thai massage, housing one of the oldest massage schools in the country. Your third and final stop is Wat Benchamabophit, one of Bangkok's most beautiful temples. Also known as the Marble

Temple, this structure glistens from the white marble that makes up the entire building's facade, exemplifying Bangkok's ornate style of high gables, stepped-out roofs and elaborate finials. It's all aboard a traditional 'long tail boat' on the Chao Phraya River to kick off this half-day tour of Thonburi's canals. Meander your way through the klongs and soak up the sleepy, quieter side of Bangkok. Sail past children waving frantically from the docks, hot bowls of spicy soup bubbling away in the makeshift waterside houses, and aunties hang the family's washing out to dry off in the hot midday sun - all tell-tale signs of life on the western side of the river. A trip to Thonburi is never complete without a visit to the iconic Wat Arun, a magnificent temple which towers 79 metres into the sky - once the tallest structures in Bangkok. Notice the intricately-tiled temple façade as you explore the complex, decorated with shards of pottery from a nearby shipwreck almost 100 years ago. Finally, head back across the river one last time to catch your transfer back to the city. (B)

Day 5 – Thursday, November 3, 2022:

Bangkok

Start a half day tour by being picked up at your hotel and driven about 100km southwest of Bangkok to Ratchaburi Province. En route, visit the Mae Klong railway market. This famous live action market is also called Talad Rom Hoop, which roughly translates to closing an umbrella or awning. As the name suggests, part of the market is situated on the railway. After seeing trains coming and the wonders of this market, continue to Damnoen Saduak Floating Market. This world-famous floating market is located about 30 minutes away.. Harking back to a time when water transport was the primary mode of transportation, the floating market features fresh fruits, flowers, colorful clothing, souvenirs and more along the waterways and on vendor boats. Walk around and check out the many stalls or rent a paddle boat (at your own expenses) to experience the market from the water. Continue to Lao Tuk Luck Market (Old Damnoen Saduak Market) which is located just over a local bridge. It is a very attractive place for tourists to see the old and traditional style of selling and buying fruits, vegetables, etc. The market is over 100 years old and the traditional Thai style houses will bring you back to its wonderful history. (B)

Day 6 – Friday, November 4, 2022:

Bangkok

Prepare for a day of amazement at what is undoubtedly one of Bangkok's - and Thailand's - most famous landmarks, the Royal Grand Palace. This three-hour tour begins in either the morning or afternoon at your hotel, where your guide will pick you up and drive you to the palace gates. From there, enjoy a tour of the magnificent palace grounds and its expansive complex, home to Thai kings until the turn of the 20th century. Still as the seat of power and the spiritual heart of the Thai kingdom, the palace contains throne halls, two of which are open to the public, which symbolise the great historical and cultural significance of the complex. Here, explore Wat Phra Kaew - Temple of the Emerald Buddha - which houses the small, yet greatly revered Emerald Buddha, dating back to the 14th Century. Around the palace grounds, witness six-meter tall statues of colourful demons from the Ramayana, who watch over the Emerald Buddha from every gate to ward off evil spirits. Finally, take some time to check out the vibrant, colourful murals of the Ramayana, which depict the ancient story of the triumph of good over evil, before being transferred back to your hotel. The balance of the day is at leisure. (B)

Day 7 – Saturday, November 5, 2022:

Bangkok/Siem Reap

Today, you will be transferred to the airport for your flight to Siem Reap. Upon arrival in Siem Reap, your guide will be waiting to transfer you to your hotel. The remainder of the day is at leisure. (B)

Day 8 – Sunday, November 6, 2022:

Siem Reap

Start with a visit to the South Gate of Angkor Thom where statues of the gods of good and evil line the entrance. Your next stop is the Bayon, known for the hundreds of smiling faces that grace the towers. The base reliefs are quite impressive and tell stories of daily life and the great battles that were fought between the Khmers and ancient Thais. Move on to Phimeanakas, shaped a bit like a pyramid with two ponds in the rear. The ponds were once used for religious rituals but today serve as swimming pools for Khmer kids. Walk to the top of the temple for impressive views of the Angkor complex. See the rows of trunks that form the wall of the Terrace of the Elephants, a platform from which King Jayavarman surveyed his army. Close by is the Terrace of Leper Kings, which includes a statue depicting Yana, the Hindu god of death. Then it's a short drive to one of the most loved temples of all - Ta Prohm. This small crumbling temple is held together by giant tree roots giving it a magical feel. Return to Siem Reap for lunch and to escape the hot sun. Then later in the afternoon explore the magnificent Angkor Wat, the world's largest religious monument. This visually spectacular temple is a massive three-tiered pyramid, rising 65 metres from the ground and crowned by five lotus towers. It's the national symbol of Cambodia and proudly appears on the country's flag. End your day with sunset views over the jungle from the top of Pre Rup Temple before returning to Siem Reap. Tonight, enjoy dinner with an Apsara Dance Show at a local restaurant. (B,L,D)

Day 9 – Monday, November 7, 2022:

Siem Reap/Chiang Rai

Cambodia is a country that has a rich artistic history, much of which was lost during the Khmer Rouge Regime; Artisans d' Angkor is a unique project that is helping to ensure the skills of the ancient artisans are never lost. You will visit a number of different workshops teaching stone carving, wood carving, lacquer application and silverwork to underprivileged Cambodians. There is also an opportunity for some shopping should you desire: afterwards, continue with a visit to the old market and artisan handicraft market in town. After the tour, transfer to the airport for your flight to Chiang Rai via Bangkok.

Upon arrival, transfer with your guide from Chiang Rai Airport to your hotel in Chiang Rai. The balance of the day is at leisure. Tonight, enjoy dinner at your hotel. (B,D)

Day 10 – Tuesday, November 8, 2022:

Chiang Rai & Golden Triangle

Today, embark on a full-day tour leading to small towns and diverse border cities in Thailand's northernmost region. Set off from your hotel in Chiang Rai and head onward to nearby Akha and Yao hill tribe villages. The Akha people are famous for their exotic and beautiful costumes, the Yao people for their peaceful and aristocratic demeanor; both tribes are welcoming to visitors, eager to show people their day-to-day life. After meeting some of the tribe's people and exploring their villages, continue to Chiang Saen, a small town on the Mekong River. Then enjoy a boat trip along the Mekong River up to the Golden Triangle, and view the scenic point where 3 countries meet. Next, visit the Hall of Opium, which is constructed on over 40 acres of land at a site near the Golden Triangle. The site incorporates an exhibition area and information center on the Hall of Opium within the landscape of the Golden Triangle Park. The Hall of Opium combines a museum on the history of opium and the impact of illegal drugs, with an information center for research and extensive education on opium, opiates and other narcotics. Learn about some of the surrounding areas at the Hill Tribe Museum, where you can explore exhibits touching on the area's long history of opium and the effect it has had on the lives of the mountain people and hill tribe villages. Return to your hotel in Chiang Rai for an evening at leisure. (B)

Day 11 – Wednesday, November 9, 2022:

Chiang Rai/Chiang Mai

After breakfast, check out of your hotel to visit the Wat Rong Khun Temple. A lifetime project of artist Chalermchai Kositpipat, the temple has a fine blend of traditional Buddhist art with contemporary themes. The temple is almost entirely white – no other colors are used at all. It is decorated with small pieces of mirrored glass which add substantially to the temple's spacious and airy feel. In the late afternoon, transfer from your hotel to Chiang Mai and enjoy the "Yi Peng Festival". (B)

Day 12 – Thursday, November 10, 2022:

In this half-day tour, visit four of the most iconic temples as well as a mountaintop temple, while driving past city markets, residential areas and Chiang Mai's main street. After being picked up at your hotel, your first destination is Wat

Phrathat Doi Suthep, a must-see temple and one of the most respected amongst all Thais. As the temple is located at the top of a mountain, challenge yourself to walk up the 300 steps of the intricately-carved mythical Naga Serpent Staircase, or take a cable car to the top for an incredible view over the stunning architecture, statues, murals and shrines of the city and surrounding areas. After you descend the mountain, drive through the city to begin your temple hopping. First up is Wat Chedi Luang, a Lanna-style chedi that was once one of the tallest structures in ancient Chiang Mai. Next, visit Wat Phra Singh, or Temple of the Lion Buddha, where you can view a collection of classic Lanna art and explore an old library. Finally, wander the gardens at Wat Suan Dok, Flower Garden Temple, where you can check out a 500-year-old bronze Buddha statue, one of the largest in Thailand. In the afternoon, stop by the San Kamphaeng District, the heart of the handicraft industry in the city. Many of Thailand's major producers are located here and you'll find all of the traditional crafts of both the old days and the new. Spend some time exploring the different craft shops and stalls, and even learn how some of Chiang Mai's famous products are made, from silk umbrella painting, cotton weaving and lacquer ware, an ancient art form of decorating wooden objects with layers of black lacquer. Return to your hotel for an evening at leisure. (B)

Day 13 – Friday, November 11, 2022:

Chiang Mai

A half-day tour to the Kanta Elephant Sanctuary offers visitors an enjoyable opportunity to spend quality time with elephants in their natural home, as well as gain an insight into their history and behavior, and create cherished lifelong memories. Walk through and learn about the elephants, change into traditional clothing and prepare fruits for our elephants. Meet the elephants, feed, interact, and play with them in a natural environment and get muddy as you learn about their behavior and history. Walk with the elephants to a river and bathe them. Enjoy tea, coffee and seasonal fruit and then say goodbye to the elephants as you leave the sanctuary and drive approximately 50 minutes back to Chiang Mai. Start the journey with a visit to a Kajorn Rangsan Temple and nearby Chin Pracha Mansion. This stunning example of Sino-colonial architecture offers fascinating insight into how a wealthy Phuket family once lived decades ago. After exploring the interior of Chin

Pracha House, walk to Thai Hua Museum for an in-depth look at how Chinese immigrants settled in Thailand. Just a stone's throw from Thalang Road, this museum is the perfect jumping-off point for a stroll down this intriguing avenue lined with stunning Sino-Portuguese style buildings and charming street-level shops. Spend the rest of the afternoon kayaking, swimming and relaxing at sea before making a personal 'krathong' to float on the water after dark.
